

GREGG's 2020 DRAFT REPORT

Quarterbacks

Joe Burrow LSU 6-3/221...amazing accuracy with great touch...throws a very catchable ball and puts it right where his receivers like it...good arm strength with a quick release...great pocket presence and excels at buying time letting his receivers break open...always has his eyes downfield as he moves in pocket and also very accurate on the move...good speed when he does run...does not lack confidence

Tua Tagovailoa Alabama 6-0/217...athletic lefty with a super quick release and a strong arm...can make all the throws and makes good decisions...really rips his throws when he sees the open man...uncanny accuracy hitting his receivers in stride at times hardly looking at them...moves well in and outside the pocket...excels in run pass option...looking good coming off successful hip surgery

Justin Herbert Oregon 6-6/236...rifle arm...great velocity on his throws...throws a beautiful ball...quick release...stands tall in the pocket...outstanding accuracy when he isn't pressured...excels in play action...excellent runner with very good speed...needs to improve his accuracy and decision making under pressure...rough games vs tough defenses (Aub..Utah..Wisc)...smart with tons of potential

Jordan Love Utah St 6-3/224...prototype size and arm strength...can make all the throws with something on it...has nice touch...very athletic with excellent speed and quickness...tough to sack but makes some ill-advised throws when under pressure...needs to improve his footwork, mechanics and turnover rate...had a lot better 2018 than 2019...great potential but might need to sit and learn for a year

Jake Fromm Georgia 6-2/219...smart, experienced winner...35-7 as starter...low turnover rate...pocket passer...quick release with a nice touch...not a running threat but avoids the rush well...arm strength has been questioned but I saw him uncork a 60 yard throw in the air right on the money and make many tough throws during his career..his arm is on par with Drew Brees...had a great 2018 season but a rough 2019 when he lost his offensive coordinator and five top receivers...great leader on and off the field

Jacob Eason Washington 6-6/231...great size and a rocket arm...Eason/Herbert have the best arms in this draft...can make some throws others can only dream about...gets ball out quickly...moves well for his size and can elude the rush...transferred from Georgia when he got hurt and lost the starters job..one year starter for Huskies and it was an up and down season..not a finished product but he has great tools

Jalen Hurts Oklahoma 6-1/222...outstanding athlete...just glides by defenders with his speed and runs like a running back...tough...can take a hit...power lifting champion in high school...excellent at buying time and waiting for receivers to come open...accurate with a nice touch...slow delivery and his arm isn't the strongest...too many turnovers in 2019...hard worker, great competitor and team leader

Anthony Gordon Wash St 6-2/205...great accuracy...good pocket presence...9 Td throws vs UCLA

Steven Montez Colo 6-4/231...excellent size/arm/mobility...slow delivery...footwork is a problem

James Morgan FIU 6-4/229...strong arm...compact delivery...needs to improve footwork...confident

Cole McDonald Haw 6-3/215...fast...athletic...66 TD passes last 2 yrs...accurate...throws nice deep ball

Nate Stanley Iowa 6-3/235...pocket passer....big arm...inconsistent accuracy...shades of Kent Graham

Kevin Davidson Prince 6-4/224...nice size/arm...only 1 year starter...throws well on the move...smart

Bryce Perkins UVA 6-3/215...tremendous athlete..fast/elusive runner..has some Taysom Hill type skills

Tyler Huntley Utah 6-1/205...accurate...decent arm...smart...excellent speed...33 career starts...winner

Nathan Rourke Ohio 6-2/209...duel threat...fast/elusive runner...excels under pressure...decent arm

Brian Lewerke Mich St 6-2/213...experienced leader..mentally tough..decent arm...rollercoaster career

Kelly Bryant Mizz 6-3/229...Clemson transfer...mobile...strong arm...shows flashes but inconsistent

Shea Patterson Mich 6-1/212...scrappy...mobile...lacks arm strength/accuracy...probable 3rd stringer

Running Backs

D'Andre Swift Georgia 5-8/212...dynamic runner with outstanding speed/quickness/strength...works hard in the weight room...quickest cuts you will ever see making defenders look bad...strong at contact...doesn't go down easy...excellent receiver and pass protector...has not been a workhorse back

Jonathan Taylor Wisconsin 5-10/226...outstanding workhorse runner...power and speed...excellent feet and can make people miss...patient runner who follows his blocks...needs work as a receiver...gets pulled on 3rd downs at times to get a better blocking back on the field...needs to take care of ball better

J.K. Dobbins Ohio St 5-9/209...workhorse back who runs tough inside...good balance...strong leg drive...squats 700 pounds...shifty in tight spaces...runs to daylight...gets outside easily with good speed and punishes DBs...hands look good...needs work blocking...not as good as ex-Buckeye Ezekiel Elliott

Zack Moss Utah 5-9/223...built like a bowling ball but is super quick and has decent speed...great balance...patient and runs tough inside...attacks defenders with excellent leverage and power...great spin move/stiff arm...tremendous stop and start ability...good receiving skills and a solid pass protector

Clyde Edwards-Helaire LSU 5-7/207...not a burner but he is tough, quick and elusive...great spin move...stocky with a strong lower body...breaks tackles and is tough to bring down...good vision...very good receiver...doesn't fumble...the more you watch him the more he impresses...needs to block better

A.J. Dillon BC 6-0/247...Marshawn Lynch type..huge legs...punishes defenders...good feet like the Bus

Cam Akers Fla St 5-10/217...patient runner...excellent speed/power...breaks tackles...fumble problems

Ke'Shawn Vaughn Vandy 5-9/214...good speed/vision...excellent contact balance...very productive

Lamichael Perine Fla 5-10/216...underrated...game fast....tough...follows blocks well...sure hands

Eno Benjamin Arizona St 5-9/207...feisty...physical...workhorse...fast...shifty....has too many fumbles

Joshua Kelley UCLA 5-10/212...solid all-around back...runs tough between the tackles...likes contact

Antonio Gibson Memp 6-0/228...converted WR...great hands...explosive...dynamic all-purpose back

Michael Warren Cinc 5-9/226..."The Truck"...powerful...elusive...good hands...one fumble in 3 years

James Robinson Ill St 5-9/219...great production...workhorse...quick cuts...breaks tackles...game fast

Anthony McFarland Md 5-8/208...explosive...can make people miss...good speed...trouble in pass pro

Reggie Corbin Ill 5-9/205...quicker than fast...shifty with quick cuts....makes people miss...underrated

Raymond Calais La Laf 5-8/188...blazing speed...tough for size...return skills..outstanding production

Darius Anderson TCU 5-10/208...runs tough inside...quicker than fast...breaks tackles...solid receiver

Darrynton Evans Appal St 5-10/203...quick moves at full speed...productive...needs work in pass pro

Tavien Feaster S Car 5-11/220...herky-jerky runner...strong leg drive...solid blocker...good receiver

Patrick Taylor Memp 6-3/223...missed most of '19/foot injury...downhill power runner...good hands

Adrian Killins Jr Cent Fla 5-8/164..Tarrik Cohen/Darren Sproles type..small but tough..blazing speed

Deejay Dallas Miami 5-10/217...runs strong inside but likes to pop outside....excellent yards per carry

Benny Lemay Char 5-8/221...Michael Pittman clone...thick...tough...shifty...runs hard with an attitude

JaMychal Hasty Bay 5-8/205...explosive..one of the fastest 10 yds at combine...probable 3rd down back

Levante Bellamy W Mich 5-9/192...burner...cuts on a dime....explodes to daylight....will run inside

Deshawn McClease Va Tech 5-9/190...patient/shifty runner...elusive..good hands..change of pace back

Rico Dowdle S Car 5-11/209...runs hard...more quick than fast...fights for every yard...injury history

Salvon Ahmed Wash 5-11/197...big speed..quick moves..takes care of football...solid receiver/returner

Xavier Jones SMU 5-11/208...excellent broken field runner...shifty...scrappy runner...catches ball well

Scottie Phillips Ole Miss 5-8/209...not a burner but quick...makes people miss...good hands/pass pro

Javon Leake RB Md 6-0/215...sprinter's speed..return skills..averaged over 7 yards per carry for career

Brian Herrien Geor 5-11/209...back up to D'Andre Swift..runs tough..finishes his runs with authority

Wide Receivers

CeeDee Lamb Oklahoma 6-1/198...tremendous runner after the catch...great moves and wicked acceleration...wiry but strong and breaks tackles...excellent hands and body control...deep threat but also tough over the middle...makes amazing catches...good job blocking...talented, complete receiver

Jerry Jeudy Alabama 6-1/193...great production...outstanding route runner...lightning quick and very tough to bump off the line...sharp cuts to get open...stops and starts on a dime...deep threat...dangerous at all three levels...elusive after the catch...long strides...has some drops...not real big but durable

Henry Ruggs Alabama 5-11/188...great deep threat with game breaking speed...blows by people with long, smooth strides...not afraid to go over the middle and is very dangerous on slants and crossing patterns...doesn't break stride when catching the ball...sure hands...excellent body control and balance

Tee Higgins Clemson 6-3/216...great size/speed combo...moves like a smaller man...smooth...reminds me of Deandre Hopkins with his ability to make the combat catch...will go to the tough areas to make the play..fearless with tremendous hands..excellent yards per catch...really gets after defenders blocking

Leviska Shenault Colorado 6-0/227...big, strong and thick...A.J. Brown type receiver...very physical and an explosive, powerful runner after the catch...excellent yards after catch...good ball skills and sure hands..fearless over middle..could play receiver, H-back or running back (check him out in the Wildcat)

Justin Jefferson LSU 6-1/202...dependable...tough...sure hands..works middle..clutch..super productive

Jalen Reagor TCU 5-10/206...super explosive athlete/deep threat...jump balls are his...had poor Qbs

KJ Hamler Penn St 5-8/178...amazing speed/acceleration/moves...small but fearless...great ball skills

Chase Claypool ND 6-4/238...smooth...good hands...quick for size...excels in red zone...tough runner

Michael Pittman USC 6-4/223...catches anything near him..explosive playmaker..tough to bring down

Brandon Aiyuk ASU 5-11/205...only 1 big year...excellent length/big hands...great YAC...deep threat

Denzel Mims Baylor 6-3/207...excellent length/speed...great combine...red zone threat...boom or bust

Van Jefferson Fla 6-1/200...good hands/size/quickness..runs great routes..attacks the football in the air

Devin Duvernay Tx 5-10/200...built and runs like a RB...physical..reminds me of a young Hines Ward

Bryan Edwards S Car 6-2/212...physical...strong...excellent hands/ball skills...tough to bring down

Antonio Gandy-Golden Lib 6-4/223...great ball skills/body control...attacks the football...big numbers

Donovan Peoples-Jones Mich 6-1/212...fast/explosive/NBA hops..tools are there just needs to produce

Quez Watkins S Miss 6-0/185...burner...great hops and hang time..makes tough grabs...excellent YAC

Collin Johnson Tx 6-5/222...great size...when he plays aggressive and attacks football he is very tough

Lynn Bowden Kent 5-10/204...playmaker...ball skills..super elusive runner..can also be a 3rd string QB

Tyler Johnson Minn 6-1/206...versatile...tough...makes great grabs...excels on slants...great attitude

Gabriel Davis Cent Fla 6-2/216...excellent frame...outstanding production...gets deep...solid blocker

Trishton Jackson Syr 6-0/197...good hands...slashing/elusive runner..battles for the ball...deep threat

James Proche SMU 5-10/201...great production....excels on contested catches...best bet is in the slot

John Hightower Boise St 6-1/189...can play all WR positions...wiry strong....fast...kick return skills

Kalija Lipscomb Vandy 6-0/207...quicker than fast...tough...best in slot...excels on contested throws

Isaiah Hodgins Oregon 6-3/210...nice length...more quick than fast....makes some unbelievable grabs

Joe Reed UVA 6-0/224...great kick returner...built like a RB..makes good adjustments to ball in the air

Freddie Swain Fla 6-0/197...very quick...good hands...reminds me of Lance Moore...gets separation

Quartney Davis Tx A&M 6-1/201...good body control/agility...decent speed...will drop some balls

K.J. Hill Ohio St 6-0/196...very quick...runs precise routes...gets separation...makes the tough catch

Darnell Mooney Tul 5-10/176...ran a 4.38 forty/37" vertical at the combine...outstanding deep threat

Kendrick Rogers Tx A&M 6-4/208...great length/catch radius...deep threat...makes acrobatic catches

Tight Ends

Hunter Bryant Washington 6-2/248...versatile playmaker who can be used in many ways...not your typical in-line tight end...can also play in the slot, out wide, H-back and in the backfield...good speed with strong hands...looks ball in and makes some spectacular catches...outstanding yards per catch...does damage after the catch...elusive and breaks tackles...not a power blocker but is efficient

Cole Kmet Notre Dame 6-5/262...nice size with sure hands and can get behind the defense...good body control and adjusts well to the off target throw...fights for yards and is tough to bring down after the catch...plays tough but needs work on his in-line blocking...reminds me of a young Greg Olsen

Adam Trautman Dayton 6-5/255...sleeper who had an excellent Senior Bowl week...very athletic with outstanding ball skills (see 1 handed grab vs Valpo)...gets vertical quickly...quick with very good change of direction...can make defenders miss/tough to bring down...showed he could block at Sr Bowl

Albert Okwuegbunam Missouri 6-5/258...big target with good ball skills...makes contested catches...excellent speed and can get deep...ran a 4.49 forty at the combine...dangerous in the red zone..good yards after catch..lined up all over..weak blocker who has the size to do it but lacks intensity

Harrison Bryant Florida Atl 6-4/243...Mackey Award winner for nation's top tight end...catches ball effortlessly and will run over defenders...nice stiff arm...makes catches in traffic...good route runner...lined up in slot, out wide and in-line and can play H-back...strong, intense blocker...fiery player

Brycen Hopkins Purdue 6-4/245...built like a big wideout and makes many downfield explosive plays...very athletic with good speed...makes some tremendous grabs but drops some balls he should catch...outstanding runner after the catch...good effort blocking but it is definitely not his strong suit

Colby Parkinson Stanford 6-7/251...nice target...dangerous in the red zone...excellent ball skills...open when he is covered...creates mismatches with his length...ex-volleyball player who can get up...runs well...can get down the seam...not much of a blocker...gets overpowered at the point of attack

Thaddeus Moss LSU 6-2/250...excellent hands...can make the tough catch and some great ones (see his sideline catch vs Alabama)...not tall for tight end but he is thick and strong...can sneak deep...good yards after catch...solid blocker who gets leverage on his opponent...great genes/father is Randy Moss

Dalton Keene Va Tech 6-4/253...makes some great grabs..quick...athletic...finishes blocks...underrated

Mitchell Wilcox S Fla 6-3/247...outstanding hands...makes some unbelievable grabs...can get vertical

Jacob Breeland Oreg 6-5/252...excellent receiver...can get vertical...coming back from a leg injury

Jared Pinkney Vandy 6-4/257...big hands with excellent ball skills....solid blocker...lacks good speed

Cheyenne O'Grady Ark 6-3/253...talented receiver....load to bring down....has had off-field issues

Devin Asiasi UCLA 6-3/257...sleeper...sure hands...runs well..good body control...needs work blocking

Ben Ellefson N Dak ST 6-3/250...gets after it in run game..finishes blocks...intense..money in red zone

Eli Wolf Geor 6-4/236...not used much in passing game but is a good receiver...very efficient blocker

Sean McKeon Mich 6-5/242...best trait is his blocking...good length...solid receiver on short routes

Giovanni Ricci W Mich 6-3/240...H-back type...good on short/intermediate routes...decent blocker

Offensive Tackles

Jedrick Wills Alabama 6-4/312...aggressive, physical mauler...knocks defenders around in the run game...haven't seen many O-lineman coming out over the years as physical as him...always looking to hit someone and always finishes...fires out quickly...can handle power or speed rushers in pass pro...very good feet...tough call between Wills, Wirfs and Thomas for top offensive tackle in this draft

Tristan Wirfs Iowa 6-5/320...great power, mobility and balance...moves defenders off the line of scrimmage and is very physical in the run game...fires out quickly and can lead a back downfield...outstanding pulling and can pick defenders off in space...changes directions extremely well for a big man...excellent pass protector and doesn't get overpowered...very alert to stunts and blitzes

Andrew Thomas Georgia 6-5/315...has the entire package at left tackle...outstanding in both run/pass game...quick and powerful in run game and is excellent making blocks at 2nd/3rd level...he is a brick wall in pass pro...moves his hands/feet in unison...handles either power or quickness with no problem

Mekhi Becton Louisville 6-7/364...movement skills for a man this size is amazing...very light on his feet with excellent balance in pass pro...once he gets his powerful hands on you its over...surprisingly quick to the 2nd level...moves people out in the run game but could be a more consistent finisher

Joshua Jones Houston 6-5/319...tremendous pass protector...great feet/balance/body control...very smooth and always looks to be in control of his opponent...excels at mirroring his man...he is better in pass pro than the run game but has shown flashes of becoming a strong run blocker...45 career starts

Austin Jackson USC 6-5/322...great length...excellent blind side protector...quick slide step and mirrors pass rusher well...keeps hands and feet moving in sync...gets to the 2nd level quickly and blocks well in space...had some trouble vs AJ Epenesa/Iowa but has the talent and attitude to be a good one

Isaiah Wilson Geor 6-6/350...imposing size with strong hands/punch block..aggressive..strong finisher

Ezra Cleveland Boise St 6-6/311...smooth feet in pass pro...good agility/balance/mobility/strength

Lucas Niang TCU 6-6/315...powerful right tackle...moves defenders out...mobile...solid pass protector

Matt Peart U Conn 6-6/318...athletic...mobile...nice length...plays hard...fires out quickly in run game

Prince Tega Wanogho Aub 6-5/308...hasn't played much but has all the tools...length/mobility/smarts

Rodney Clemons SMU 6-0/209...strong run support...sure tackler...speed/explosion lacking at combine

Kenny Robinson Jr WVU 6-2/198...two very good years at WVU presently in XFL available for draft

Possible Steeler picks Round 2 pick #49

Josh Uche OLB Michigan 6-1/245...the Steelers need to get another OLB ready because they won't be able to pay both Watt and Dupree and you know TJ isn't going anywhere...Josh is super quick and can get to the QB...great motor...excellent in pass coverage...relentless in pursuit...15.5 sacks last 2 years

K.J. Hamler WR Penn St 5-8/178...small but very dynamic...great speed and strength for his size...did 15 reps x 225 on the bench/very impressive at his size...can line up all over but would be great in the slot...had a few drops which he will have to correct at next level..he is a game breaker with return skills

Jalen Reagor WR TCU 5-10/206...quick twitch athlete who would give the Steelers that big-time deep threat...high points the football with a 42" vertical...great speed and acceleration...quick stop/start...used on deep routes/jet sweeps/screens/reverses/punt-kick returns...lacked good Qb play

Chase Claypool WR Notre Dame 6-4/238...a serious matchup problem for any defensive coordinator...big as a tight end but has the speed/quickness of a wideout...great red zone threat/13 TDs in 2019...catches ball effortlessly...dominant combine...would really solidify Steelers receiving corps

Kyle Dugger SS/LB Lenoir-Rhyne 6-1/217...tremendous athlete with great speed and leaping ability...Mark Barron has been cut and Dugger would be a great replacement for him...the Steelers could also move Edmunds up and Kyle could play strong safety...he is very physical and a great tackler

Antoine Winfield Jr SS Minnesota 5-9/203...he says you will get passion and turnovers if you draft him (sounds good to me)...great instincts and range...smart/quick/tough...hard hitter and sure tackler...ballhawk with great ball skills...electric punt returner...hard worker with a team first attitude

Cesar Ruiz C/OG Michigan 6-2/307...excellent athlete with massive hands...quick feet and runs well...can pull and block in space...thick body and has some power in run game...tremendous pass protector...alert..could come in and backup Pouncey and the guards and be a starter in the near future

Netane Muti OG Fresno St 6-3/315...with the new opening at guard he can be a plug & play...one of the most physical lineman I have ever seen...very strong (44 reps x 225) with huge hands...he would give the running game a real shot in the arm..can also play tackle..hard worker...Netane Muti kicks ass!

Malik Harrison ILB Ohio St 6-2/247...playmaker who reminds me of a young Donte Hightower...quick...athletic...always around the ball...physical textbook tackler...quick read and react..gets off blocks..dangerous on blitz..smart..would make a great partner with Devin Bush for years

Troy Dye ILB Oregon 6-3/231...all of a sudden the Steelers need linebackers bad and the athletic Dye would be a major upgrade over Mark Barron...super productive tackling machine with outstanding cover skills...great competitor/leader and I believe he would be the captain of the defense very quickly

Ezra Cleveland OT Boise St 6-6/311...left tackle on the rise...great athlete with speed, balance and agility...good length and strength/30 reps x 225...works his hands and feet in unison in pass pro...finisher in the run game...may not last to the Steelers pick but if he does they may pull the trigger

Isaiah Wilson OT Georgia 6-6/350...massive right tackle who moves people with strong hands/punch block...very active and aggressive...moves well for his size...gets to the 2nd level quickly and finishes his blocks...excellent balance in pass pro...mirrors his man well and doesn't lunge...keeps improving

Round 3 pick #102

A.J. Dillon RB Boston College 6-0/247...bruising power back who punishes defenders but can also make them miss...huge thighs/legs...quick feet...41" vertical at combine shows his explosiveness...the Steelers need to get back to a ball-control offense and this durable/powerful runner could be the answer

Jake Fromm QB Georgia 6-2/219...if he falls this far they would have to think about it...he is a winner (35-7 career record)...accurate with a quick release and a good record of not turning the ball over...decent arm with great touch...buys time in the pocket...great leader who handles adversity well

Zack Moss RB Utah 5-9/223...strong, compact runner with excellent stop and start ability...attacks the line of scrimmage with power...plus yards after contact...great balance...can make defenders miss or run over them...strong stiff arm...tough to stop in short yardage...dangerous receiver and solid in pass pro

Devin Duvernay WR Texas 5-10/200...very quick with track star speed...built like a RB and breaks tackles...very tough and reminds me of a young Hines Ward...sure 1st round pick Grant Delpit flew up to hit Devin and got ran over...dangerous on screens...great hands...will be tough to handle in the slot

Michael Pittman WR USC 6-4/223...excellent size with good speed...excels at all 3 levels...fearless making combat catches...very tough to bring down and battles for every yard...had one of the best 3 cone drills at the combine which shows agility/quickness/change of direction...gunner on special teams

Bradlee Anae Edge Utah 6-3/257...relentless defender brings it hard off the edge...violent hands...led the Utes in sacks the last three years...plays with great energy...his forty time isn't great but no one seems to be able to block him...destroyed OT Terence Steele in the Senior Bowl game...30 career sacks

Davon Hamilton NT Ohio St 6-3/320...big, powerful nose tackle can step right in and start...can make things happen with 20 tackles for loss in his career and 6 sacks as a Sr...quick off the snap...can handle the double team...good feet and can get off blocks...Steelers love Buckeye players and he is a nice fit

Darnay Holmes CB UCLA 5-10/195...battles every play...hates to give up a reception...very good speed/quickness with excellent recovery skills...playmaker who had 8 career picks taking two to the house...good tackler/big hitter...a perfect replacement if Mike Hilton isn't resigned...also has return skills

Damien Lewis OG LSU 6-2/327...could plug him right in for Ramon Foster...a real road grader who moves people off the line of scrimmage and finishes his blocks...gets many knockdowns/pancakes...I thought he was the best overall player in the Senior Bowl game...he dominated on almost every snap

Jalen Hurts QB Oklahoma 6-1/222...another QB that could fall into the Steelers laps if they don't think Rudolph is the future...great athlete who is built and runs like a RB...very strong and can take a hit...arm strength/football intelligence/hard worker/great leader...needs to improve his accuracy and reading defenses but could be a Taysom Hill type weapon while learning behind Ben for a year or two

Jeremy Chinn SS Southern Illinois 6-3/221...big, fast and strong...chiseled physique...excellent range and ball skills/13 career picks...versatile could move up to play some LB...explosive athlete with a 41" vertical...comes hard on the blitz...very smart...hits like his Hall of Fame uncle Steve Atwater

Julian Okwara OLB Notre Dame 6-4/252...prototype edge rusher with great length and speed...very long arms and big hands...bends the edge with excellent closing speed...moves well in coverage...good strength but needs to improve at the point of attack...lacks consistency and is a boom or bust player

Round 4 pick #124

Clyde Edwards-Helaire RB LSU 5-7/207...stocky and strong...excellent power with outstanding balance...tough between the tackles...more quick than fast...strong legs/lower body...39.5" vertical...excellent receiver...doesn't fumble...Samuels play has digressed/Helaire would beat him out

Akeem Davis-Gaither LB Appalachian St 6-1/224...when I watched him vs La-Lafayette he was in on almost every tackle...he plays with fire and attitude and plays bigger than 6-1/224...very fast with great instincts...Steelers would be set inside for the next 4-5 years with him and Devin Bush inside

Cam Akers RB Florida St 5-10/217...all the way speed...patient runner with some Leveon Bell type explosion when he sees daylight...can make people miss or run over them...keeps feet moving on contact...ran behind a bad O-line but still had an excellent year...needs to solve his fumbling problem

Quez Watkins WR Mississippi 6-0/195....Steelers could use a real speed burner to go along with Juju, Johnson and Washington and this kid can fly...explosive deep threat who will also go over the middle...dangerous on crossing routes...can go up and get it and make tough, contested catches

J.R. Reed SS Georgia 6-0/202...tough/aggressive safety...best in the box...outstanding hitter and tackler...excellent run support...smart with great film preparation...he is one of those guys that won't blow you away with his combine numbers but put him between the lines and he makes plays all day

Logan Wilson ILB Wyoming 6-2/241...underrated ILB with 4 years of outstanding production...good speed and change of direction...textbook tackler with his head up...quick to get off blocks...outstanding in coverage...gets deep drops and moves like a safety...10 career picks is very impressive at linebacker

Matt Hennessey C/OG/OT Temple 6-4/307...would be a great swingman able to play anywhere on the line due to his athleticism...comes off the snap like a shot and gets on his man quickly...finishes his blocks...gets position on opponent with his quick feet...an additional 10 pounds of muscle wouldn't hurt

Robert Hunt OG/OT Louisiana 6-5/323...versatile lineman who could play right tackle or guard...excellent size with good feet and power in the run game...will maul and get nasty...runs well with good balance...handles power and mirrors his man well in pass pro...3 year starter with 47 starts

Brandon Jones S Texas 5-11/198...everything you look for in a SS...strong run support/sure tackler/big hitter...good cover skills...watch his work in man coverage vs Justin Jefferson in LSU game...tireless film study...31 starts...14 career tackles for loss..great leader on/off the field and brings a lot to the table

Leki Fotu NT Utah 6-5/330...it is time for the Steelers to move on from Big Dan McCullers (has he ever made a tackle)...Fotu is fairly athletic and mobile for his massive size...he has a quick first step and makes plays in the backfield (17 career tackles for loss)...can also play end in a 3-4...good motor

Ashtyn Davis S/CB California 6-1/202...great athlete who brings outstanding versatility...can play anywhere in the secondary including corner...great closing speed/ball skills...made some plays that will remind you of Troy Polamalu...could backup all positions and push for Terrell Edmunds starting job

Matt Peart OT Connecticut 6-7/318...four year starter...tremendous length helps him control the defender with his long reach...once he locks up he is tough to get away from...better in pass pro than run game...handled two tough Alabama players (Terrell Lewis/Anfernee Jennings) in the Senior Bowl

Darrell Taylor Edge Tennessee 6-3/267...physical specimen who sets a strong edge...very tough to move off the spot...has all the tools to be outstanding just needs to be more consistent...long arms...good speed...he can get to the quarterback (19.5 career sacks) and also moves well in coverage

Alex Highsmith Edge Charlotte 6-3/248...outstanding pass rusher...lightning quick spin move...strong/quick hands...second to Chase Young in sacks (14) this past year...good speed...shows some power at times...holds his ground well at the point of attack...could be a dynamic designated rusher off the edge

Bryan Edwards WR South Carolina 6-2/212...maybe the toughest receiver in this draft...strong frame with good length...physical and fearless...good hands and ball skills...outstanding on contested catches...high points the football...smart receiver who knows where the sticks are...hard worker...leader

Ke'Shawn Vaughn RB Vanderbilt 5-9/215...explosive/physical runner with a wicked stiff arm...quick cuts and good vision...breaks tackles...excellent contact balance...decent speed and a solid receiver...outstanding production even with teams loading up the box to stop him due to bad QB play

Antonio Gibson RB/WR Memphis 6-0/228...converting to RB from WR but could play either position with his talent...averaged 19 yards per catch and on only 77 touches this year he scored 14 touchdowns...outstanding speed and explosion...ran tough inside breaking tackles in the Senior Bowl

Jack Driscoll OT/G Auburn 6-4/306...versatile lineman who could swing between guard and tackle backing up the starters...very solid in both pass pro and run game...good feet/recovery ability...intense and physical...had an excellent Senior Bowl handling some of the top defensive lineman in the country

Lynn Bowden Jr WR Kentucky 5-10/204...another Antwaan Randle-El and that worked out pretty well for the Steelers...quick and tough with good ball skills...outstanding elusive runner and you can use him in numerous ways...he also can be your 3rd string quarterback and save you a roster spot

Amik Robertson CB Louisiana Tech 5-8/187...undersized but dynamic corner who will move to nickel in the NFL...ballhawk with excellent hands and leaping ability/14 career picks and 3 defensive TDs...physical...good tackler...dangerous on the blitz...amazing 23 tackles for loss/4 sacks in his career

Reggie Robinson CB Tulsa 6-1/205...excellent size/length/speed...plays tight in your face man coverage...smooth turning and running with receiver...doesn't give much cushion...physical...comes up strong vs the run and tackles well..looked very good in the Senior Bowl..Steelers like big/tough corners

Raequan Williams DT/DE Michigan St 6-4/308...nice size/length with quick feet...has some pass rush moves...disruptive and quick into backfield...could play end in 3-4 defense and move inside on passing downs...big and tough enough to also play nose tackle..needs to get stronger/only 17 reps x 225

Khaleke Hudson SS Michigan 5-11/224...McKeesport HS grad...played the Viper a hybrid LB/SS position...could be the player that Marcus Allen was supposed to be...does everything well cover/hit/blitz...fiery...led Michigan in tackles...strong/30 reps x 225...will be valuable on special teams

Cam Brown LB Penn St 6-5/233...sideline to sideline defender with a non-stop motor...covers a lot of ground with his long strides...big hitter when he arrives...great intensity and hustle...versatile defender who could play inside or outside...good cover skills..very effective on blitz...smart..leader...hard worker

Evan Weaver ILB California 6-2/237...tackling machine with an unbelievable motor...i am not saying he is another Lambert but that is who he reminds me of the way he attacks and tackles with authority...only defender in the country with over 100 solo tackles...leader...will excel on special teams

Jon Runyan OG/OT/C Michigan 6-4/306...following in his father's footsteps who was a tough O-lineman for many years with the Eagles...Steelers love versatile lineman and Jon can play anywhere and also long snaps...nice size and mobility..he is a finisher and would be a nice addition to the Steelers

John Reid CB Penn St 5-10/187...one of the more underrated players in this draft...combines solid cover skills with excellent tackling ability...gets good position in coverage and gets his head around to find the ball...smooth backpedal...outstanding combine/ran a 4.49 forty...consistent..smart...hard worker

Dante Olson ILB Montana 6-2/237...relentless going to the ball and he is an excellent tackler/hitter...wraps up well...physical and game fast...explosive athlete with a 42" vertical...strong at the point of attack vs bigger lineman...brings it every play...hard worker...led the FCS with 179 tackles

Parnell Motley CB Oklahoma 5-11/180...not real big but very quick and combative...can play man or zone...excellent timing on the pass break up without interfering...outstanding instincts...excels at forcing fumbles...playmaker who would be a nice replacement for Mike Hilton if he doesn't sign

Jordan Glasgow LB/SS Michigan 6-0/226...would be a perfect replacement for Big Red...he has a great motor flying around the field hitting everything in sight...never stops moving...played both linebacker and safety for Wolverines...hard hitter/sure tackler...fiery and will be a great special teamer

Casey Toohill OLB Stanford 6-4/250...has the speed/length/explosion you are looking for in an edge rusher...very smart and disciplined...sets the edge strong...had an excellent senior season with 11.5 tackles for loss and 8 sacks...quick pass drops...sit a year behind Dupree and take over as starter in 2021

Mitchell Wilcox TE South Florida 6-3/247...had a poor combine running much slower than he looks on film...he could drop on draft day and be a late round steal...has excellent ball skills and will lay out to make the catch...can get vertical...fiery...lines up all over and prides himself on his in-line blocking

Tyler Clark DT Georgia 6-4/300...tough inside battler...very quick off the snap...tough to move...reads the play well and finds the ball vs the run...good at getting off blocks...plays mean and doesn't take anything off anyone...can push the pocket..nice swim move...would be a nice replacement for Hargrave

Stephen Montez QB Colorado 6-4/231...would be a project and he especially needs work on his footwork which will improve his accuracy...combines a rocket arm with outstanding size and mobility...would be a major upgrade over the Duck and will give Mason Rudolph a run for his money

Michael Warren RB Cincinnati 5-9/226...they call him "the Truck"...powerful inside runner but has those great feet like "the Bus"...more quick than fast...breaks tackles and runs over defenders...very productive...only one fumble in 3 years...if the Steelers draft him they could call him "the Mini Bus"

Josh Metellus SS Michigan 5-11/209...tough guy who brings an intimidating presence to your secondary...fiery and tenacious...big hitter/strong run support...decent cover skills...could also play hybrid LB...3 strong years for Wolverines...not a burner but he is quick/agile and has excellent instincts

Kendall Coleman Edge Syracuse 6-2/257...playmaker with 14 sacks/22.5 tackles for loss the last two years...quick first step and great in pursuit...keeps feet moving...strong hands to move lineman...athletic with good change of direction...can get low coming off edge...big hitter...dominant in the Shrine Game

Dalton Keene TE Virginia Tech 6-4/253...athletic with good hands...makes some great grabs...tough runner after the catch...battles for every yard and breaks tackles...had best 20 yard shuttle time of all the tight ends which shows speed, explosion, body control and agility...i feel he is a very underrated player

Luke Juriga C/OG Western Michigan 6-4/298...smart, tough and durable...4 year starter/3 at guard/1 at center...team captain...very alert and active in pass pro...nice combo blocks and gets many knockdowns in the run game...has pop in his hands...played on same line as Steeler Chuks Okorafor

Zack Shackelford C Texas 6-4/305...one of the tougher/nastier players in this draft class...plays to the edge and sometimes over it...a guy you don't want to play against...he will be in your face for 60 minutes...huge/powerful legs...doesn't give ground in pass pro...enforcer who keeps opposition honest

Dele Harding ILB Illinois 6-1/230...tackling machine who is always around the ball...nasty in the middle...will light you up coming into his zone...one of the biggest hitters in the draft...gets off blocks well...tremendous production and a non-stop motor...better vs the run but still had three picks in 2019

Benny Lemay RB Charlotte 5-8/221...thick compact build with excellent power...runs tough inside...more quick than fast...nice burst...defenders bounce off his strong lower body...takes care of the football...solid in the pass game/4 receiving TDs this year...reminds me of ex-Buc Michael Pittman

Michael Onwenu OG Michigan 6-3/350...massive guard who moves well for his size...people mover in the run game...quick for his size...is able to get to the 2nd level and square up a linebacker...good at combo blocks...won't get overpowered in pass pro...excellent hand fighter...can handle counter moves

Derrek Tuszka DE/OLB N Dakota St 6-4/251...Missouri Valley Def Player of the Year...excellent quickness, agility and change of direction...dominant in the Shrine game and also had a great combine...brings it on every play...nice rip move...smart...hard worker...Chase Winovich type defender

Chris Miller S Baylor 5-11/190...lacks great size and speed but he hits like a truck...fearless player with good instincts...you can hear pads popping when he is in the area...also wraps up well...43 career starts...probably not a starter but would make a nice backup and a tough leader on special teams

Broderick Washington DT Texas Tech 6-2/305...stout vs the run...gets a strong push inside...huge hands...good mobility/pursuit/motor...doesn't give up on a play...looked very good against some of the top offensive lineman in the country at Senior Bowl week...has had three solid/consistent seasons

Freddie Swain WR Florida 6-0/197...deep threat who gets separation...excellent straight line speed but is also quick and agile...very good hands...can get up...tough and plays hurt...works the middle of the field well...knows how to get open...can play multiple WR positions...return skills...best in the slot

Malcolm Perry WR/QB Navy 5-9/186...was an outstanding running Qb at Navy but projects to the slot...not a straight line burner but super quick and elusive...could also return punts...fearless/tough and does whatever it takes to win...could be another Antwaan Randle-El...great leader who players follow

Sleepers

Josh Love QB/SJ St 6-2/203...fearless hanging in the pocket...throws a nice deep ball...good touch

Tommy Stevens QB/Miss St 6-5/235...not a great QB but a tremendous athlete...fast...strong...big arm

- 88 New Orleans...Jake Fromm QB/Georgia...Drew has got to start slowing down some time...maybe
- 89 Minnesota...Shane Lemieux OG/Oregon...Cousins saw too much pressure up the middle last year
- 90 Las Vegas...Alton Robinson DE/Syracuse...a stronger pass rush is a high priority for "Chucky"
- 91 Cleveland...Robert Hunt OG/Louisiana...Mayfield needs better protection and Hunt will help
- 92 Baltimore...Albert Okwuegbunam TE/Missouri...Ravens love TEs and need to replace Hurst
- 93 Tennessee...Neville Gallimore DT/Oklahoma...a perfect replacement for veteran Jurrell Casey
- 94 Green Bay...Jordyn Brooks ILB/Texas Tech...explosive inside backer to replace Blake Martinez

- 95 Denver...Jeremy Chinn SS/S Illinois...versatile hard-hitting safety will add needed depth
- 96 Kansas City...Lucas Niang OT/TCU...powerful right tackle adds depth to Chiefs O-line
- 97 Houston...Jonathan Greenard Edge/Florida...Texans were one of the worst at getting to QB
- 98 New England...Darrell Taylor OLB/Tennessee...Pats got crushed at linebacker in free agency
- 99 NY Giants...Matt Peart OT/Connecticut...both Giants tackles are weak in pass protection
- 100 New England...Logan Wilson ILB/Wyoming...underrated ILB who excels in pass coverage
- 101 Seattle...Noah Igbinoghene CB/Auburn...recent signing of Q Dunbar helps but depth needed
- 102 Pittsburgh...Devin Duvernay WR/Texas...fast, tough slot receiver who plays like Hines Ward
- 103 Philadelphia...Saahdiq Charles OT/LSU...veteran Jason Peters is testing free agency
- 104 LA Rams...Cam Akers RB/Florida St...explosive runner will be in the mix to start
- 105 Minnesota...Brandon Jones S/Texas...need depth behind Harrison Smith and Anthony Harris
- 106 Baltimore...John Simpson OG/Clemson...excellent pulling OG to replace retired Marshall Yanda

3 Steeler Mock Draft scenarios

Round 2 pick #49...Josh Uche LB/Michigan...in my mock draft there are many outstanding players the Steelers could draft here especially J.K. Dobbins, Antoine Winfield, Tyler Biadasz or K.J. Hamler...I would have no problem with any of those picks but Uche is a tremendous athlete who can cover and get to the QB...he also would help the pass rush this year and take over for Dupree next year

Round 3 pick #102...Devin Duvernay WR/Texas...Hines Ward type with better speed...built like a RB and breaks tackles after the catch...has outstanding hands and would be great in the slot

Round 4 pick #124...Leki Fotu DT/Utah...massive nose tackle and we can finally move on from Big Dan McCullers...Fotu has very good mobility and could also play some end in Steelers 3-4 defense

Round 4 pick #135...Ke'Shawn Vaughn RB/Vanderbilt...tough, underrated back who normally ran against a loaded box due to a bad passing game but still put up excellent numbers in the tough SEC...you can get a good back like Vaughn later and not use that 2nd rounder on a running back

Round 6 pick #198...Jon Runyan OT-OG-C/Michigan...tough, mobile lineman who can play all five positions and also long snaps...his versatility would be very valuable

Round 7 pick #232...Parnell Motley CB/Oklahoma...reminds me of ex-Steeler Willie Gay...he isn't the biggest or fastest but has great instincts, cover skills, very combative and causes turnovers

Round 2...K.J. Hamler WR/Penn St...dynamic playmaker with game breaking qualities

Round 3...Jake Fromm QB/Georgia...poised leader with great experience...35-7 record in the SEC

Round 4...Logan Wilson ILB/Wyoming...athletic tackling machine who also excels in coverage

Round 4...Lamical Perine RB/Florida...James Conner type back who does everything well

Round 6...Danny Pinter OT-OG/Ball St...versatile, athletic ex-TE can play inside or outside

Round 7...Reggie Robinson CB/Tulsa...big/physical corner who plays tight in-your-face coverage

Round 2...Malik Harrison ILB/Ohio St...outstanding Ilb would be a great partner for Devin Bush

Round 3...A.J. Dillon RB/Boston College...bring back the power run game...Dillon is a Hammer!

Round 4...Quez Watkins WR/S Mississippi...blazing deep threat whose best football is ahead

Round 4...J.R. Reed SS/Georgia...physical playmaker could beat out Edmunds as a rookie

Round 6...Casey Toohill OLB/Stanford...underrated edge player with good speed and explosion

Round 7...Luke Juriga C-OG/W Michigan...tough, durable leader who can swing between C and OG

The case for the Steelers drafting a QB

I would not use the Steelers 1st pick (2nd round) on a QB but I would think hard about it if Jake Fromm falls to their 3rd rounder....the big four Burrow, Tua, Herbert and Love should all be gone by the end of the first round but that leaves Jake Fromm, Jacob Eason and Jalen Hurts the Steelers could be interested in...i personally like Fromm the best and would be very tempted if he fell to pick #102...he is a winner, leader, smart, poised and very competitive...he doesn't have the arm Eason has but it isn't bad...he knows where to go with the ball and is accurate, also he doesn't turn the ball over/78 touchdown passes to 18 picks for his career...very good pocket presence unlike Mason...he has great experience with a 35-7 record as a starter...remember Eason was once a Georgia Bulldog but was beat out by Jake and transferred to Washington...he has all the tools but has only started for one year and it was up and down...Hurts is a great athlete and a leader but he is also a project like Eason...he is very elusive and can buy time waiting for an open man...will need to learn to read defenses and work on his footwork throwing but he is a hard worker in the film and weight room and he is hungry to be a starter...two strong armed QBs that interest me later in the draft are Stephen Montez and James Morgan...both are projects but have the size and arm strength you like...it will all depend on how much the Steelers like Mason Rudolph...even if they do think he is Ben's predecessor some competition sure wouldn't hurt. Sorry Duck!

Draft will be old school this year but it will give us all something to do for a few days...Go Stillers!
